- Mitski was in the midst of a break down and decided to write a song called "Nobody".

- the chorus Nobody was a semi-fugue as Mitski on her hands and knees crying repeating the word Nobody

Washing Machine Heart

— this song is about wanting to be noticed and giving up everything for them to notice you — this song can be interpreted in many ways I see the song as wanting your parent's love and attention but never getting it

ω

Francis Forever

is about a person being torn between not caring about what people think and caring this is a common dilemma in people
